The graph demonstrates trends in the per capita consumption of dairy products by Canadians.

Complete the following questions:

1. What do we call this type of graph? ____________________________

2. Here in Canada, 18 per cent of milk from dairy farms is processed into different types of milk. Name three different kinds of milk found at your grocery store.
   ______________   ______________   ______________

3. True or False. Canadians buy more butter than they do cheese?

4. What milk foods would be categorized as "other"?
   ______________   ______________

5. What type of cheese is the most popular here in Canada? ______________
The graph demonstrates trends in the per capita consumption of dairy products by Canadians.

Answers:

1. Pie Graph
2. 2% Milk, 3.25% Milk, 1% Milk, Skim Milk, Chocolate Milk
3. False. Only 23 per cent of milk is turned into butter while 33 per cent is processed into cheese.
4. Sour Cream, Whipping Cream
5. Cheddar Cheese